ORDER ACCEPTING FINDINGS, CONCLUSIONS, AND RECOMMENDATION OF THE UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE

The United States Magistrate Judge made findings, conclusions, and a recommendation in this case. [Doc. No. 20]. Plaintiff Alonzo Traylor filed an objection. [Doc. No. 21]. Traylor's objection reiterates the allegations in his complaints. As the magistrate judge's findings, conclusions, and recommendation explains, a party must make specific objections identifying "the specific finding or recommendation to which objection is made."¹ An objection like this one, "that merely incorporates by reference or refers to the briefing before the magistrate judge is not specific."²

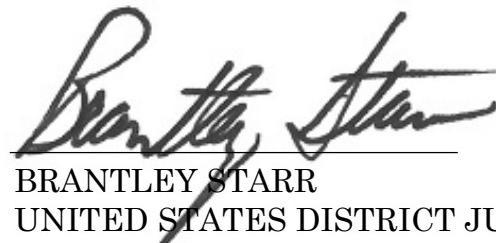

Because Traylor's objection merely reiterates the briefing before the magistrate judge, the Court finds that he has failed to state a specific objection to the magistrate judge's findings. Finding no error, the Court ACCEPTS the Findings, Conclusions, and Recommendation of the United States Magistrate Judge. By separate judgment, the Court will dismiss this action.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 14th day of December, 2021.
